Kings Cup Rules

CARD	MEANING	ACTION
Ace	Waterfall	When a player picks up an ACE all players perform Waterfall – this is where everyone picks up their drink and starts drinking at the same time. Nobody can ‘stop’ drinking until the player before them stops
2	Give 2	The player who picks up a number 2 can either; <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Point to 1 person to take 2 drinks or- Point at 2 people to take a drink
3	3 is me	The player who picks up a number 3 – takes 3 drinks
4	Give 2 / take 2	The player who picks up a number 4 <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Point to a person to take 2 drinks or- Point at 2 people to take a drink- And drinks 2 drinks
5	Give a Rule	The player who picks up a number 5 sets a rule that must be followed. It can be anything so you may want to set some boundaries on what’s allowed – otherwise, there’s nothing stopping a rule being unfair! “If your name's Dave you have to drink every time someone else does” is one example of an unfair but legal rule! 8	Mate	The player who picks up a number 8 must choose a 'mate' whenever you drink your mate must drink with you.
9	Nine is Rhyme	The player who picks up a number 9 says any word they can think of, the player to their right must say a new word that rhymes with that word. Each player takes turn and must rhyme each word. This round ends when a player cannot think of a word that rhymes... they must take a drink.
10	Categories	The player who picks up a number 10 makes up a category of things. for example, types of Pokemon, cars... slang for genitalia. Anything goes! The player to the right must find something that falls into that category. This round ends when a player cannot think of a word / thing that fits into that category and they take a drink.
Jack	Guys Drinks	This is an easy one – all the guys take a drink
Queen	Girls Drink	Another easy one – all the girls take a drink
King	Kings Cup	This is what the whole game is about. The Kings Cup. At the centre of the table sits the 'Kings Cup' If you pick up a King, you must fill up the cup with some of your drink. If you're playing with one deck, fill the glass up by a quarter. If you are playing with two, fill it up by an eighth. The person who gets the last King must down the resulting mix of drinks! Please note: Red Wine, Guinness and Cider is not an enjoyable combination!
